Week 42: Acts 28:28-31 Where Ever We Are

BIG IDEA:

As we close out the book of Acts, we see that the story doesn't end with Paul: it still continues to us today. We are God's SENT people right where He has us today. We are CALLED to live as God's missionaries to those who do not know Him. We can do this by...

1. Living provocatively so others want to know what is different about us:
  - a. In how we work.
  - b. In how we handle disappointment, persecution or pain.
  - c. In our generosity.
2. By seizing opportunities to share the Good News of Jesus' life, death and resurrection with those who need to hear it.
3. Embracing God's sovereignty as a gift.
4. Discovering our calling where God has us right now.
5. Living sent on mission in our volunteering, generosity and faith as we invest in our cities, families, and serving the common good of all.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

Do you know your calling?

To where and what people, specifically, has God called and sent you to?

Review each item in the list above in light of who God has called and sent you to.

How would you score yourself?

Ask those closest to you if they see you the same way.

How can you improve in each area?

If we claim the name of Christ, we are missionaries. Do you believe that?

What do you have to sacrifice in order to live out that calling?

Are you willing to?

Spend time in prayer this week (both alone and with others) seeking God's calling in your life. Ask Him to reveal the cost of following His wisdom and Spirit's leading.
