Week 34: Acts 25:13-26:29

Do You Believe

BIG IDEA:

Paul, yet again, shares his story about meeting Jesus. Paul will share who he was before and who he is now, in Christ. Paul now identifies his sin and how much grace he has received from God.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

Other than Jesus, who is the best person you think that has ever lived?

Who is the worst person who you think has ever lived?

Where would you rate yourself on that scale? How good of a person are you?

Why will a scale of our own goodness always be lacking?

Have you ever realized how wicked you truly are apart from Christ?

Do you really believe that your only hope in life is found in God's grace?

Is your life characterized by thankfulness or complaint?

What are the things that you regularly celebrate and do you celebrate the amazing grace of God that has been given to you through Jesus?

How can you be reminded of these Gospel truths for your life every day?

How can a community of people remind each other of these Gospel truths regularly?

Who do you know who needs to hear of the hope of the cross?

How would those who don't know Jesus, but know you, describe faith in Jesus, based on your life?

In the areas where they misunderstand, how can you help them to understand?
