INTRODUCTION

No matter what life circumstance you come from, being a parent should be first centered on Jesus before anything else. Our relationship with our children should flow out of our relationship with our God.

DISCUSSION

What are the things your parents did well?

What are the things your parents did not do well?

How do both of those still effect you to this day?

EXPLANATION – READ DEUT 6:4-6

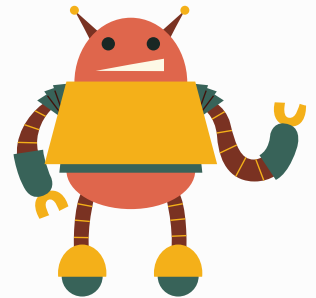

How were the things in the verse above modeled, or not modeled, by your parents while growing up?

How did your parents show love?

APPLICATION – READ JAMES 1:17

Do you see “the good” coming from God?

What is “the good” in your life?

MISSION

As a parent, what do you see as your strength and weaknesses?

How can others help you to grow through your weaknesses?

How can you reach into others' lives to help them grow in the hope that Jesus provides?
