AMOS

Prophesied 8th Century BC (during the reign of Uzziah, king of Judah and Jeroboam, King of Israel).

Occupation - farmer and rancher.

Town - Tekoa (10 miles south of Jerusalem).

Amos did not consider himself a prophet but instead a "grower of Sycamore figs" and a shepherd.

Amos was tired of his country's sin and complacency. He spoke against the ways his country exploited the poor and needy.

How can the message of Amos bring you comfort when you encounter injustice?

DISCUSSION QUESTION:

How does God want us to respond when we realize that we have corrupted our worship or our love for the people in our lives?
