

Story Within The Story Week Thirteen: Gleanings from Ruth

The story of Ruth is all about God's story... and God's story is all about Jesus. Sure, we can call this Gleanings of Ruth, but I think we can also call the story Gleanings from Element! At Element there is really only one message every Sunday morning, and that is Jesus. The truth is that Jesus lived, died, and rose again for us; He is making all things new, even today. He made Naomi new again, He made Boaz new again, He made Ruth new again, and He makes us new again even today, because that's what Jesus is all about. He is present and working in our lives to bring about Redemption; inviting us back into a relationship with Him.

Discussion

Are you thankful for what God has done in your life?

Are you aware of what God is doing in your life?

What are your hopes of what He will do?

Do you tend to focus on your situation or God in your situation?

How can you begin to share with others what God is doing in your life?

Homework: Read Ruth 1-4:17

Now that we have finished Ruth, re-read the book of Ruth. Does the story become more meaningful after what we have studied over the past 13 weeks?
